El series EUR MONTHLY report - 2024 DECEMBER (made on: 12/31/2024)

INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND

MARKET SUMMARY

The US equity market had an average performance in December, influenced by rising bond yields and mixed economic data. Although the S&P 500 and the Nasdaq index reached new all-time highs, led mainly by the technology sector, the year-end Santa Claus rally did not deliver the expected results. The ISM services sector index showed a solid growth picture, while labor market data indicated a balanced economy. The Fed's 25 basis point interest rate decision in December was in line with expectations, but Powell's speech suggested less rate cuts next year than expected. This caused a sell-off, that markets have not been able to recover from since. Some sectors, such as semiconductors, did not perform well for other reasons, partly explained by market overpricing and sector-specific uncertainties. In Europe, the German DAX index rose to a new high, supported by a favorable yield environment and expected interest rate cuts by the European Central Bank. But the German market also fell back by the end of December, caused by a political crisis like the one in France. The French market was held back by fiscal uncertainty and tensions around political conflicts, in particular a motion of no confidence in the government. Although weak PMI data indicated a slowdown in the Eurozone economy, investment stimulus statements and expected monetary easing improved sentiment in the cyclical sectors.

In December, the BUX closed the month and the year with a significant rise (+30.9%). None of the blue chips closed the month in the red. Magyar Telekom rose the most, followed by OTP and MOL. In the case of MOL, a rally started, breaking previous trends, which also improved the technical picture of the stock. Among the midcap companies in the BUX index, 4iG and Waberers had more significant corporate news. The former reported on 4iG's satellite programme, SpaceX services and technology partnerships, while Waberers acquired a 70 percent stake in GYSEV Cargo Zrt, a developer of rail logistics infrastructure. In December, following a successful IPO, trading started in Granite Bank shares, which rose around 10% in the first week. The Fund did not change its equity exposure during the month.
