

VIG Opportunity Developed Markets Equity Investment Fund

B series EUR MONTHLY report - 2025 JUNE (made on: 06/30/2025)

INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND

The Fund aims to profit from the returns on global equity market investments through stock prices and dividend income. According to the intentions of the Fund Manager, the bulk of the Fund's portfolio is made up of shares of foreign companies issued through public offerings, but the Fund may also invest in shares issued by Hungarian companies. The proportion of shares that can be held in the Fund at any given time may reach the prevailing legal maximum. The Fund Manager has the option, at its own discretion, of hedging all or part of its foreign exchange risks using forward currency positions subject to observing the applicable legal requirements.

MARKET SUMMARY

The US stock markets were driven by conflicting events during the month. On the one hand, favorable corporate results (e.g. Apple, Nvidia) and a court ruling that partially invalidated punitive tariffs had a positive impact on the markets. The Nasdaq Composite index closed at new highs. On the other hand, the war between Israel and Iran and strong government communication aimed at reinstating tariffs were negative factors. The dollar weakened due to unfavorable US macro data, while bond yields declined overall. However, declining volatility had a positive effect, encouraging investors to increase their positions and resulting in record capital inflows into the United States. European capital markets were initially positively affected by the expected interest rate cut by the European Central Bank (ECB). Inflation data for May, particularly in Germany and France, were lower than expected, further reinforcing expectations of monetary easing. However, investor optimism was tempered by the continued weakness of the European manufacturing sector, particularly the decline in the automotive industry. The outlook for the economically significant German economy remains unfavorable, as indicated by continued factory closures and layoffs. On a positive note, however, the United Kingdom received further tariff exemptions from the United States on steel and aluminum products, supporting the price of British industrial stocks.

The Fund posted a negative return in June, and matched the benchmark index. We kept our position in UnitedHealth unchanged. Over the past few months, US equities have underperformed European equities, but it seems that this trend may have reversed. Therefore, we are slightly overweight in US equities in the Fund. The coming period is historically positive for the stock markets, but we have certain reservations about the US president's new tax plan. We cannot rule out the possibility that when it is passed by Congress, it may generate a small selling wave. Therefore, the Fund was slightly underweight at the end of the month.
