HUF-RP series MONTHLY report - 2026 FEBRUARY (made on: 02/28/2026)

INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND

The Fund aims to profit from the returns on global equity market investments through stock prices and dividend income. According to the intentions of the Fund Manager, the bulk of the Fund's portfolio is made up of shares of foreign companies issued through public offerings, but the Fund may also invest in shares issued by Hungarian companies. The proportion of shares that can be held in the Fund at any given time may reach the prevailing legal maximum. The Fund Manager has the option, at its own discretion, of hedging all or part of its foreign exchange risks using forward currency positions subject to observing the applicable legal requirements.

MARKET SUMMARY

In February, the S&P 500 index declined slightly, while the VIX (the volatility index) remained at a consistently high level, indicating a strong sector rotation within the index. Nvidia's quarterly revenue exceeded expectations, but the subdued market reaction suggests that the positive surprise was already priced in. In terms of monetary policy, Kevin Warsh's nomination as Fed chair fundamentally rewrote interest rate expectations, shifting market attention from the short-term interest rate path to the possible reduction of the central bank's $6.6 trillion balance sheet. Futures markets are currently pricing in two cuts for 2026, with the first move expected to be postponed until June-July. The yield curve has stabilized at around 4.1% on 10-year bonds. On the geopolitical front, the resumption of US-Iran nuclear talks, Iran's 15-day ultimatum, and the concentration of forces in the Middle East have pushed up oil prices. European stock markets significantly outperformed the US, fueled by favorable valuations, a strong earnings season, and political commitment to increase defense spending. The ECB is expected to continue its easing cycle, but news of ECB President Lagarde's possible early departure raises some uncertainty about the continuity of institutional communication.

The Fund achieved a positive return in February, slightly underperforming the benchmark index. At the beginning of the month, we sold the gold position we had bought at the end of January, when gold rebounded from its low. We also bought silver when we saw panic selling sweeping through the precious metals markets. We sold this position as well when the price of silver rose by more than 10%. We realized profits on our Pepsi and Kimberly-Clark positions when we felt that the markets were starting to weaken. If the share prices of these two companies continue to fall, we intend to buy them back. We are maintaining our overweight position in Europe versus our underweight position in the US.
