

VIG Hungarian Money Market Investment Fund

A series HUF MONTHLY report - 2026 APRIL (made on: 04/30/2026)

INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND

The Fund's aim is to function as a stable, low-risk form of investment, while providing investors with higher returns than they could expect from bank deposits. In order to ensure liquidity, the Fund intends primarily to hold in its portfolio government bonds and discount treasury bills issued by the Government Debt Management Agency (ÁKK) and bonds issued by the National Bank of Hungary (MNB). The weighted average maturity (WAM) of the assets in the portfolio may not exceed 6 months and the weighted average life (WAL) of the assets may not exceed 12 months. The Fund may hold in its portfolio low-risk debt securities issued by banks and companies, which are expected to provide higher returns than government securities and are denominated primarily in HUF, but also in other currencies. The Fund may also invest to a limited extent in government securities or guaranteed bonds issued by the OECD or a G20 country, or any debt security issued or guaranteed by the central government or a regional or local government or the central bank of any EU Member State, or by the European Union, the European Central Bank or the European Investment Bank. The weighted average maturity (WAM) of the assets in the portfolio may not exceed 6 months and the weighted average life (WAL) of the assets may not exceed 12 months. In addition, the remaining time to maturity of each security is a maximum of 2 years and a maximum of 397 days until the nearest interest-rate determination date. The Fund may also keep its liquid assets in bank deposits. The fund may hold a limited amount of foreign currency assets in its portfolio, but only subject to the full hedging of currency risk.

VIG Moneymarket Fund is not a guaranteed investment. The risk of loss of the principal is to be borne by the investor. An investment in VIG Moneymarket Fund is different from an investment in deposits, with particular reference to the risk that the principal invested in VIG Moneymarket Fund is capable of fluctuation. VIG Moneymarket Fund does not rely on external support for guaranteeing the liquidity of the fund or stabilising the NAV per unit or share.

MARKET SUMMARY

The performance of bond markets continued to be shaped by the Iranian conflict that broke out at the end of February and has been ongoing ever since. Rising global oil prices fueled inflation concerns, which initially led to an increase in bond yields. In addition to the Iranian conflict, Hungarian bond yields were also influenced by a one-off domestic factor in April: a change in government following parliamentary elections held on April 12. The victory of the TISZA Party triggered a euphoric market reaction, during which Hungarian bond yields declined by 50– 100 basis points. Yields fell by around 100 basis points in the middle of the curve and by 85 basis points at the long end. Short-term yields also declined and then stabilized in the 5.7– 5.9% range. The previously expected three rate hikes have now been fully priced out, and according to current market expectations, neither rate cuts nor rate hikes are anticipated this year. At its April rate-setting meeting, the Monetary Council left the base rate unchanged at 6.25%. The fuel price cap remains in place, and the new government intends to maintain it as long as necessary. As a result of government measures aimed at containing prices, lower inflation may be observed in Hungary during the first half of the year. Due to the geopolitical situation, uncertainty remains high, and the outcome of the Iranian war is still unclear. Although short-term yields have declined significantly, we remain positive on the asset class, supported by efforts toward a favorable resolution of the conflict.
