INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND:

The aim of the fund is to function as a stable, very low-risk investment vehicle, but to offer investors better returns than bank deposits. The portfolio elements are selected in accordance with these principles. To ensure liquidity the fund manager primarily aims to hold government bonds and discount treasury bills distributed by the State Debt Management Centre (ÁKK), and bonds issued by the National Bank of Hungary. The average duration of the assets in the portfolio is 6 months, and the average remaining life of the assets may not exceed 12 months. The fund is low-risk, but its portfolio may also contain forint-denominated debt securities issued by banks and corporations, which are expected to ensure a higher return than government securities. In the case of floating rate, forint denominated debt securities the average duration is equal to the number of days remaining until the next interest payment day. The fund may also invest its liquid assets in bank deposits. Besides this, the fund may hold a limited proportion of foreign-currency instruments in its portfolio, but only subject to the full hedging of currency risk.

MARKET SUMMARY:

This month was characterized by uncertainty arising inside and outside Hungary. International sentiment was driven by fears of nearing Fed tapering again which caused significant fall of bond prices globally, especially weighing on emerging markets. As investor sentiment turned to be negative and another round of significant capital outflows hit emerging markets, longer maturity local bond prices decreased materially. Meanwhile, the National Bank of Hungary surprised the market with a 20 bps rate cut, hitting a new record low of 3,8%. Easing bias remained, the end of the easing cycle could reach 3,5%, if market conditions allow it. Though, this is accompanied by very steep curve and longer FRAs (6x9) price no more rate cuts. Despite the mixed picture we increased the duration in the fund before the Monetary Council's meeting, which proved to be very successful.
