INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND:

The fund aims to share in the yields on equity markets in the Asian region, and to profit from the region's economic growth through share price gains and dividend income. Given the risk profiles of the equity investments, the fund is classified as a high-risk investment. The fund invests its capital in equity-type instruments of the target countries. The fund aims to create an opportunity for investors to invest in equity markets that are representative of the Asian economies. The most important target countries are Hong Kong, India, China, South Korea and Taiwan, but the fund also invests in the capital markets of other Asian countries. This may be achieved through the purchase of individual shares or through collective investment instruments. The fund plans to invest predominantly in the latter, and accordingly, it primarily buys into exchange-traded funds (ETFs) and open-ended public investment funds. In accordance with our obligation under law, we draw the attention of all investors to the fact that the fund is a fund that invests in other investment funds; in other words, in accordance with its investment policy it may invest more than 80 percent of its assets in investment fund shares or securities issued by other collective investment instruments. However, the fund's portfolio will not contain shares of any single investment fund in a weight of over 20%. The fund only invests in investment vehicles whose expense ratio is less than 2.5%, though it always strives to ensure that the overall average fee burden does not exceed 1%.

MARKET SUMMARY:

Just like in April, equities started the month on a weak footing in May, but due to a strong rebound in the last days of the month most major indices managed to close the month in green. There were, however, some exceptions, such as Turkey, Poland or Russia, which did not manage to turn the early trend, but most equity markets had a fair month in May. It is interesting though, that bond markets did not validate the equity market's optimism with US and German long rates staying at depressed levels. Oil reached 50 dollar per barrel, but the momentum stalled there without further advance. May was also a surprisingly strong month for the dollar and the yen. Copper, however, closed the month at the bottom of its recent ranges. Asian equities underperformed slightly MSCI Emerging Market Index in May on Chinese and Japanese growth and monetary risks. The fund performed well due to its more defensive portfolio structure.
