MARKET SUMMARY:

Just like last few months the corona virus was the focus of world's attention in June. The first wave of the epidemic appears to have subsided in Asia and Europe, while in the United States it depends on the state what stage it is at. This is a major problem for the economy. The US Federal Reserve is doing everything it can to ease the pressure on the economy, but it does not have unlimited power. The taboos are starting to fall, as the St. Louis Fed President has already admitted that even negative interest rates could be used to kick-start the economy. In Europe, the ECB is working feverishly to figure out how to get the economy back on track as soon as possible. The central bank has increased its bond-buying program to € 600 billion, compared to the expected € 500 billion, and its duration has been extended to at least the end of June 2021. More and more positive economic data is coming out of China. What may cast a shadow over the joy that nearly 80 new infections have been found in Beijing by Sunday, raising the possibility that the second wave of the virus has arrived. In Hungary, the MNB reduced the key interest rate by 15 basis points at its June meeting. The decision is incomprehensible to us, as EURHUF has finally stabilized around 340 and 15 basis points is insignificant for the economy. The MNB also indicated that a further decline in interest rates is expected. The forint did not take the news well, and weakened by almost 5% against the euro within a week. The fund achieved a positive return in June. The fund further reduced its exposure in June's market rally from 60% in May to 53%. During the month, the fund took profits in a few well performing cyclical stocks. Although we have restructured a bit, the fund still holds a higher-than-usual Polish exposure.
